Harvesting History

International Pinot Noir Celebration

By Barrett Dahl

International Pinot Noir Celebration

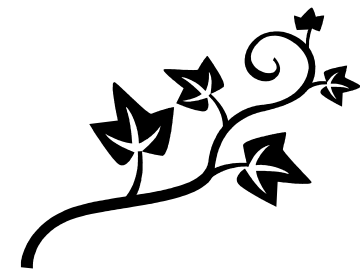

- The Early Pinot lovers
- First official International Pinot Noir Celebration
 - A Global Gathering of Vintners, Chefs, and Guest Speakers
 - Chefs, wine makers, vineyard owners, pinot enthusiasts, wine novices, foodies and journalists from all over the world
 - Seminars and Salmons
 - One of the most anticipated celebrations

In the internship

- Learned about
 - The history of the IPNC
- The environment
 - Applying what I have learned
 - Finding a use for my skills and expanding on them
- Professional and Personal
 - Communication

In myself

- Opportunity to develop my strengths in
 - Setting and achieving goals
 - Creating a system for organizing a history
 - Finding order and fulfilling roles
 - My love of learning and collecting information
 - Distinguishing what I love from what I like-a distinction I think every soon-to-be graduate should know.

Thank you...

- Whitney Schubert, Executive Director of the IPNC
- Dr. Jeff Peterson, Director of Linfield Center for the Northwest
