

1-1-2016

The Story of Eyes

José Angel Araguz
Linfield College

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/englfac_pubs

Part of the Poetry Commons

DigitalCommons@Linfield Citation

Araguz, José Angel, "The Story of Eyes" (2016). Faculty Publications. Published Version. Submission 44.
http://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/englfac_pubs/44

This Published Version is brought to you for free via open access, courtesy of DigitalCommons@Linfield. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@linfield.edu.

José Angel Araguz

The Story of Eyes

The girl who could only cry from one eye at a time after her parents divorced.

When with her mother, one eye brimmed, hot with tears.

When with her father, a cold trickle along one side of her face.

Who she is lies in the time between the eyes taking turns being cloudy.

When clear, she says things like: I bet the sun and moon think all the stars the same.