CLASS OF 1950

The Class of 1950 entered the second year of training with many activities. Glee Club claimed officers from its ranks, including Betty Glidden, president, and Dorothy Reece, vice-president. Sponsored by the Alumni, the Glee Club enjoyed a successful season, culminating the year's endeavor with a spring concert.

Monthly dances offered diversion as well as money for the coffers of the class. Clever decorations were the keynotes of the affairs.

One of the highest points of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet, held at Berg's Chalet amid soft lights and organ music on March 5.

Serving the class as officers were:

CLASS OF 1951

Members of the Class of 1951 launched themselves into their new surroundings with enthusiasm.

Capping services for the 1951-A's were held September 3, 1948, in the hospital chapel, and the 1951-B's received their caps on April 1, 1949, at St. Mark's.

Adjusting to the requirements of the curriculum, the girls joined and participated in many school activities.

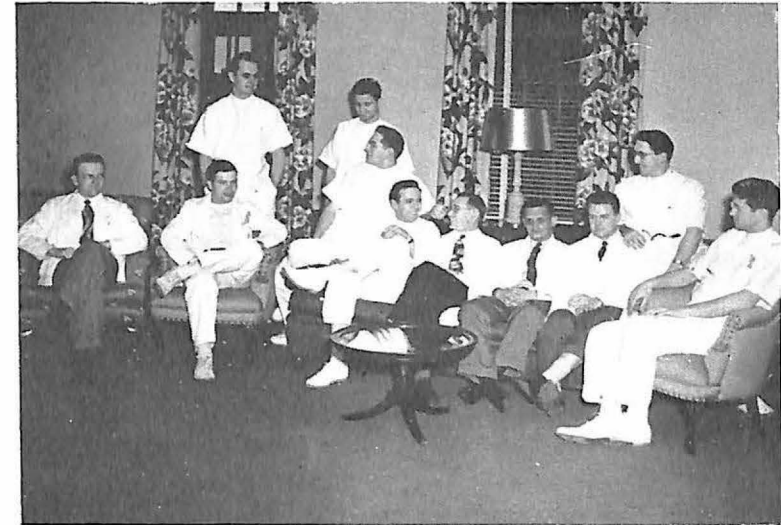

A sextette organized from the class entertained on several occasions, as well as appearing with the Glee Club. Lynden King, a member of the sextette, also served as secretary-treasurer of the Glee Club.

A hilarious Christmas party showed effort, planning and talent when various aspects of hospital life were presented.

Guiding the class through the first year were:
