HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20515

JOHN DELLENBACK
OREGON-4TH DISTRICT

October 17, 1973

Dear Mr. ~~Bjelland~~ ^{Paul}

Thanks for your much appreciated help in connection with the case of Johannesburg Riesling. Certainly your seeing that it was delivered directly to my District Office was service far and above anything that might have been expected.

While I had to take the case apart twice in the process of clearing it through airline inspections, that was no major problem and the case and carrier both made it safely to Washington.

The International Club party for which Mary Jane was hoping to have the wine is still about ten days away so I can't refer to any comments made as yet about the quality of our Oregon products, but I will let you know afterward what we learn. We intend to make clear to all concerned where this exceptional product originated, and do appreciate your sending along the copies of the Vinifera NUZ.

Thank you once again, Paul. I will hope for a time in the not too distant future when I can visit your vineyards and try that private sampling.

Cordially yours,

~~JOHN DELLENBACK~~
