Senior Class Prophecy

It is quite interesting to look at the future as told by a Gypsy Fortune Teller. These prophecies should occur within the next ten years:

ELAINE ALTIMUS--still keeping the post office in business with those dozens of letters she receives; BEVERLY BORAS--famous inventor of the disposable bedpan and emesis basin; HENRIETTA BRADLEY--using her knowledge of nutrition on the Eskimos of Alaska; BETH BUNCH RIGGS--settled down with her husband and five children. That pediatrics class will sure help! ROBERTA BOLLES--taking a culture course in Tennessee; MURIEL CHERRY--sitting in a locked cell in Salem saying, "I'm always working evenings." GLORIA COMINI--still trying to decide between nursing or Jerry; CAROL CRINKLAW--she is a famous surgeon at the Mayo Clinic--she always did like to cut up; LOIS ANN DIRIMPLE--she now has a slow Southern drawl, can you imagine?! PAT EIDSON--running a quiet old maid's home in Baker; VIRGINIA ELLIS--still trying to keep track of Doris and Corky--PAT FRAZIER--slinging hash for the lumber-jacks at Bates; DONNA FRY--still assisting the stork at Wilcox.

BEVERLY GILLET--working as a beauty operator and trying to get everyone to dye their hair red; LOUISE FLINIAU--working for that famous orthopedic surgeon, Dr. K. She's certainly had the experience; CLAUDETTE GLEASON--editor of the American Journal of Nursing; ELSA GILBERTSON --president of the U.S.O. and still trying to recruit members; DORIS HILDEBRAND--still using her German accent when she doesn't want anyone to understand her; WYMA HOXWORTH--taking place of Ma Kettle in the movies; KARENE KUNS--running a dairy farm in Hubbard and milking the cows all by herself; VIOLET JUDD--working as Candy's private nurse. What a future?!?

JOAN LECOCQ--raising guppies for the Oregon Fish Hatchery; JACQUELINE MASON--in Idaho helping the stork with the sheep. Guess the labor pains and all of Wilcox was too much for her; RUTH MEISSINGER--working on a farm in Sherwood raising chickens. She's trying to invent a new kind of egg; MURIEL OBERST--has established an orphanage for men only; MAXINE O'BRIEN--still asking the students of G.S.H. to take their coke bottles to the basement; LOIS RAAT--celebrating her tenth anniversary of marriage; JEAN ROSE--president of the O.S.N.A. and still trying to make a thirty hour week; ANITRA SANDWICK--has now taken over Liberace's program. Never knew she played the piano that well; SUE SIMPKINS--using her first aid on the bow and arrow puncture wounds of the Indians of Oklahoma; KATHERINE STURM--competing for the women's champion wrestler; HELEN SUIRE--running in the hot rod races at Jantzen Beach.

GRETCHEN THOMAS--taking slenderizing lessons at Majeske's Steam House; MAUREAN TREHEARNE--working as a master of ceremonies on Truth or Consequences. Knew all those pranks of hers would come in handy; DONNA VAN DORN--playing her ukelele with the Nat King Cole Trio; JUNE WARK--holding special performances as a great ballet dancer at Carnegie Hall; JEAN WASVICK--flying high since her dream is to be a stewardess; ARLENE TORNBLAD--she and her sister running the Tornblad Dog and Cat Hospital.

Class Prophecy

FROM HERE TO MATERNITY

It seems a large number of the class of 1954 are returning to await the stork at Wilcox because they receive a 10 % discount. Some are working, and a few are visiting to hear what's happened to their classmates in the last 10 years---let's peek at PAT MAJESKE, working in second nursery and watching friends and family's faces when she raises the shade at 2:30 and 7:30; ROSE IWASAKI, stands behind new fathers just in case they faint; SHIRLEY MCLEAN, head nurse in delivery room because of the fine delivery she did; LILLIAN HINES, director of nurses at Wilcox, working up to her predecessor's position for which she is a namesake; BETH TOMLINSON, an old timer with babies, she's psychiatric nurse on third floor. Soon she's leaving for Idaho to buy a potato farm and rear her own five spuds; MARIANNE VACCA, raising lovely small "Lilley's", she has a good crop this year; JEANNE HEBBLETHWAITE, industrial nurse at the Coca-Cola Company-business has had a sharp increase; BEVERLY CRAMER, worked enough 48 hour weeks to buy a 1935 Ford; DOROTHY JONES, employed at Dennis Uniform Company styling and making students uniforms; WILMA NELSON, named her new twins Spider and Cob-she's always busy dusting the Webbs; VIOLA METCALF, author of new book, "How to Work Nights and Like It"; MARJORY MASCALL, author of "How to Work Mornings and Like It"; NANCY HALSEY RAY, heads debate today on "Why Student Nurses Should Be Married Their Last Two Years"; GRACE ARMSTRONG, teaches first aid at Oaks Roller Rink every Tuesday; DONNA KEEBE, found weeping often, but only due to her large onion farm in Dilley; MARGARET BAILLE, has featured article in the Sunday paper discussing how to find your way around Georgia swamps with an army radio; MILDRED MCGERRIGLE, territorial nurse for the Canadian Mounties; EDWINA COFFEY, established new USO dance hall near GSH to take care of the Condon Invasion; VIRGINIA FLOWERS, recently had triplets and had to temporarily give up her duties as social chairman for GSH alumni; ELEANOR GOWER, invented a push button to roll beds up and down-has also written an article on "Why Ward Clerks in Pediatrics are Unnecessary"; LOIS LONDON, working nights on first floor Wilcox, has finally put her husband through Medical School--she looks pale from 10 years lack of sun; BARBARA HAZELTON, due to her nice tan and walking by the Klamath Indian Reservation, she was captured and made Medicine Man. LUCILLE JOHNSON, has become famous for inventing a new cleaning agent, "Anti-Bettman Gauze Red"; JO NYSTROM, teaches anatomy and physiology of the fish at Bonneville Hatchery, CRESCENT ENGLISH, has weekly classes for expectant mothers of the PTA; ELEANOR EMERY, wrote a book for head nurses, "How to Make Out Hours"; EDITH TENNANT, teaching chemistry to probies at GSH; BEVERLY BENNER, working in the Ozarks giving smallpox vaccinations; MARCELLA SPAINHOWARD, studying how to boil eggs so the yolk is runny and the white is hard; JANET CHAMBERS, director of students at Gopher Gulch; ALICE NICHOLS, making masks and gowns for the mice on three west back; BARBARA WENTWORTH, has gone into plumbing after working one east for 8 years; MARY NOPP, established NNA-Nopp Nursing Association; WILLAMINE WHITE, manufactured 3,000 alarm clocks that wake nurses up gently to the song "Moonlight Serenade"; LAURA PATTERSON, receiving good wages from Truth or Consequences, thinking up and planning devilish things for the poor victims to do.

Class Will

We, the senior class of 1954, being of sound mind and body, (if such a thing is still possible) do willingly and joyfully bequeath the following:

I, JEANNE HEBBLETHWAITE, leave my passion for the coke machine to Carol McCleary; I, MARJORIE MASCALL, leave to Sharon Lary all the mornings I worked in Pediatrics; I, VIOLA METCALF, leave my Air Force recruiting papers to Joan Furby; I, WILMA NELSON, leave my 48 hour week to Shirley Dunn, hope it works out all right; I, NANCY HALSEY RAY, leave my marital bliss to Pat Bartlett; I, BETH TOMLINSON, leave my ability to confuse to Dr. Kimberly; I, MARIANNE VACCA, willingly bequeath my poor worn out uniforms to anyone who wants them; I, BEVERLY CRAMER, reluctantly leave my long curly locks to Claudia Haner; I, DONNA KEENE, leave my liking for Evergency Surgery to Elaine Conklin, may you scrub cupboards in peace; I, GRACE ARMSTRONG, leave my roller skates to Louise Johnson so she can continue skating down the halls at midnight; I, MARGARET BAILLE, can't leave anything, it's all too well worn; I, BEVERLY BENNER, think I will quietly steal away; I, JANET CHAMBERS, will my nuthouse shoes to the Salem Senators; I, EDWINA COFFEY, leave my U.S.O. card to Marge DeRosset and company; I, CRESCENT ENGLISH, will the gold fillings in my teeth to next years treasurer to help fill up the defecit; I, VIRGINIA FLOWERS, will my ability to sleep through the most challenging and inspirational Soc class to Lorna White; I, ELEANOR GOWER, leave my quiet personality and lovable ways to Jane Walsh; I, BARBARA HAZELTON, leave for California; I, ROSE IWASAKI, leave my height to Gilda Holderman, she may need it; I, LUCILLE JOHNSON, leave all the knowledge I should have acquired, but didn't, behind.

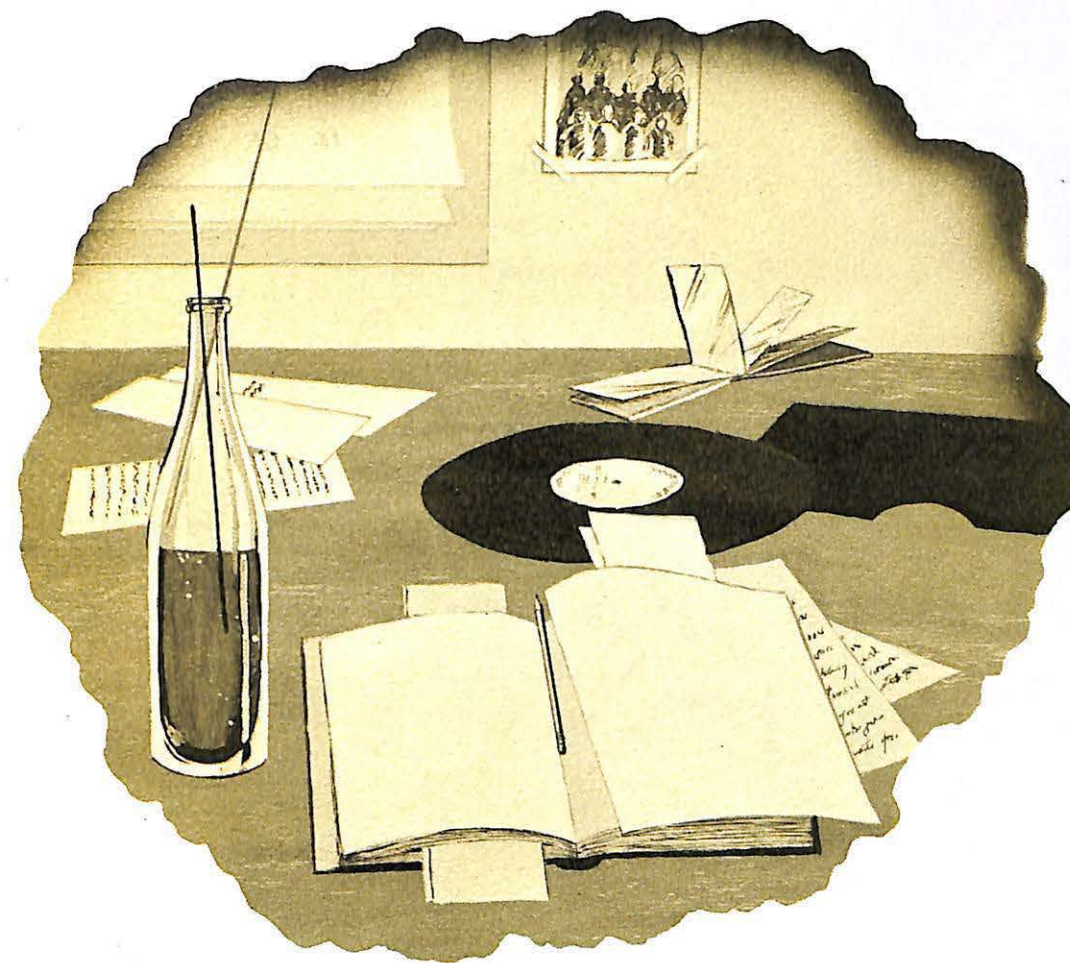

I, DOROTHY JONES, will my love for Pediatrics to Bonnie Williams; I, LOIS LONDON, gladly leave all my night duty to Marilyn Peterson; I, PAT MAJESKI, leave my charming and quiet little laugh to Gerrie Masten; I, MILDRED MCGERRIGLE, leave my successful blind dates to Pat Jenkins; I, SHIRLEY MCLEAN, leave Donna Birch in the guiding hands of "Mother Stevens"; I, ALICE NICHOLS, bequeath my ability to write care studies to Rosie Nehr; I, MARY NOPP, am taking everything with me; I, JOSEPHINE NYSTROM, will--- you bet I will! I, LAURA PATTERSON, leave laughingly with WILAMINE WHITE; I, MARCELLA SPAINHOWARD, leave the treasury books to next years treasurer along with a box of asprin to Miss Grimes when she checks them over; I, EDITH TENNANT, leave--Amen! I, BARBARA WENTWORTH, and I, ELEANOR EMERY, will our copies of the Blue Book to any misguided soul who will accept.

To next years seniors (bless their souls) we leave our ability to graduate in a multitude.

We, the entire senior class of 1954, will to any student, group of students, or class, the same privileges that we had, of taking the bad with the good and always coming out on top.

We also leave all our good times and acquired knowledge not in the halls of G.S.H. but in our hearts and minds.

From left to right, back row: G. Masten, M. Belts, C. Krupsky, C. Haner, M. Lippert, G. Noble, S. Semmler, J. Walsh, B. Williams, M. Anderson, C. McCleary, R. Nehr, D. Belland, A. Heard, C. Tornblad, J. Furby, M. Peterson, M. DeRosset; front row: G. Clark, Y. Cereghino, V. Schierling, P. Bartlett, H. Webber, S. Lary, E. Conklin, J. Yaden, S. Dumm, D. Birch, M. Peck, G. Fischer.

Under the able guidance of president Rosalie Nehr, the class of 1955 had a successful and outstanding year. One of the main projects annually and traditionally conducted by this class are the monthly stag dances. These dances, with themes, refreshments, and recorded music were carried out by the social chairman, Shirley Dumm, and the assistant chairman, Carol McCleary.

Several money raising enterprises were the selling of white shoe polish, Christmas cards, stationary, popcorn, and lemonade.

Not to be forgotten is the banquet given in honor of the graduating seniors by the junior class. Also, a Christmas party for the entire student body. The other class officers include: Vice-Pres: Arvilla Heard; Secretary: Pat Bartlett; Treasurer: Helen Webber; S.B. Representative: Janet Yaden.

Pope, E. Irwin, J. Snow, A. Burkett, M. Schroeder.

The "probie" class of 1956 organized September 17, and chose as their motto "The door to success is Push." The red rose is their flower, and scarlet and white are their class colors. The classes' main project has been a carnival for the benefit of recreation equipment. This festive occasion was very successful, and, happily, netted an ample amount for the equipment plus some for several other beneficial causes.

The six month probation period flew quickly by and what a glorious evening March 26 was! Smiles were mingled with tears as the girls received the cap for which they had so long awaited.

Class officers are: President: Joann Long, Agnes Garland; Vice Pres: Marjorie Pierson, Judy Snavely; Secretary: Terri Altree; Treasurer: Edith Elmquist; S.B. Representative: Virginia Giberson; Historian: Gilda Holderman.

Organizations

A salute to the annual staff who through unfailing patience and efforts, this 1953-1954 annual is being presented to you, with the hope that in the years to come, pleasant memories and friendships will be recalled.

Social Committee

The brighter side of nursing life is centered around the Social Committee. Through the activities of this committee the students find recreation, pleasure, and amusement. The most important function is to plan the Student Body Spring Formal.

Parliamentary Committee

This committee's duties are to meet and discuss proper parliamentary procedures, and enforce them in student body meetings.

Uniform Committee

The purpose of this committee is through student supervision, to maintain professional appearances, attitudes, and ethics of each student nurse.

C. Haner, B. Williams, E. Gower, M. Vacca. Not pictured: M. Nopp.

House and Grounds Committee

The duties of the House and Grounds Committee are to check rooms twice monthly for cleanliness and award points accordingly. High points result in extra late passes. They are also responsible for the appearance of the dormitory and classrooms.

Big and Little Sister Committee

This committee is responsible for welcoming new and prospective student nurses to our hospital. They sponsor a party every fall to acquaint the old and the new students. It is also their duty to see that each new student has a big sister to guide her. They are available at any time to give advice and encouragement.

Library Committee

The library committee selects new books, magazines, and pamphlets annually to add to our already well established library. It is their duty to enforce the rules and regulations of the library, as well as assisting the Librarian with her problems.

Nominating Committee

The duties of the nominating committee are to select, present, and help elect nominees for offices of the Student Association, OSSNA, and any other offices needing to be filled. It is also their responsibility to conduct the election for Prom Queen.

"Blue Champagne" 1953 Prom

Her royal highness, Joan LeCocq I, was crowned queen of the 1953 Prom by Dr. John Branford. The Pompei Room of the Congress Hotel was splendidly decorated in accordance with the theme "Blue Champagne". Her court consisted of six lovely princesses.

On behalf of the Annual Staff and Student Body, we extend our heartfelt Thanks and appreciation to "Logan and Markham Studio" for the photography in this Yearbook.
