
3-5-2019

Respect Existence or Expect Resistance: Fundraising for Trans Law Center

Lara Martz
Linfield College

Sage Kramer-Urner
Linfield College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/inauguration2019_students

Part of the Civic and Community Engagement Commons, Civil Rights and Discrimination Commons, Human Rights Law Commons, Inequality and Stratification Commons, Law and Gender Commons, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Studies Commons, Liberal Studies Commons, and the Sexuality and the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Martz, Lara and Kramer-Urner, Sage, "Respect Existence or Expect Resistance: Fundraising for Trans Law Center" (2019). Student Engagement Posters. 14.

https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/inauguration2019_students/14

This Book is protected by copyright and/or related rights. It is brought to you for free via open access, courtesy of DigitalCommons@Linfield, with permission from the rights-holder(s). Your use of this Book must comply with the Terms of Use for material posted in DigitalCommons@Linfield, or with other stated terms (such as a Creative Commons license) indicated in the record and/or on the work itself. For more information, or if you have questions about permitted uses, please contact digitalcommons@linfield.edu.

RESPECT EXISTENCE OR EXPECT RESISTANCE: FUNDRAISING FOR TRANS LAW CENTER

LARA MARTZ, PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR AND SAGE KRAMER-URNER, PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR

As Officers of Fusion: Queer Student Union we held a benefit dinner to raise funds for the transgender law center and express our disagreement as a community with the Trump administration's intention to erase trans identity. As a result we raised $570 for the center.

HOW WE WERE IMPACTED

This event allowed us to feel proud of a tangible piece of action that fostered community. We learned that what is most valuable is creating a space for passionate people to come together and connect. By making this space, we created something significant that the community responded to without much need for prompting. This has been a foundational part of what is important to us: Communal advocacy.

We were able to connect to other students, faculty, and staff and learned more about how to hold real conversations. This allowed us to get to know each other and we learned about our passion for advocacy and how that is shared amongst community members.

OUR FLIER FROM THE EVENT

Respect Existence
or Expect Resistance:
A Night of
Trans Support

Enjoy a pasta buffet and activities!

Thursday, December 6
5:30 PM-7:00 PM
Jonasson Hall
$5.00 per plate

All proceeds benefit the Transgender Law Center

Sponsored by Fusion and SAGE

WE LEARNED

- How to take a stand on an important issue
- To spread our values of inclusivity and human rights
- The importance of celebration of diverse gender identities
- How to encourage active allyship in the Linfield community
- How to support a cause that promotes justice and equality
- How to talk about issues that are important to us and connect them to the Linfield community

We are proud that we donated time, attention, passion, and voices to an important cause. We grew from the conversations we had, which were spontaneous and fulfilling for both us and the community. We now have connections to Linfield community members that hadn't previously existed.

