Launching through the Surf Traveling Exhibit Panel 20: Additional Support for the Project

Tyrone Marshall
Linfield College

Brenda DeVore Marshall
Linfield College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/dory_exhibit

Part of the Cultural History Commons, Oral History Commons, Speech and Rhetorical Studies Commons, and the Theatre and Performance Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/dory_exhibit/9

This Exhibit Panel is brought to you for free via open access, courtesy of DigitalCommons@Linfield. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@linfield.edu.
An Anonymous Donor

Nancy Whelan

Tillamook County Cultural Coalition

Tom McCall with salmon caught during a fishing trip with Paul Hanneman in the Kiwanda Clipper 2

The Jim Jim and another dory preparing to launch near the Toadstools at Cape Kiwanda, circa late 1950s

Terry Learned with his catch of salmon, September 1964

Sid Fisher and daughter Laura with the “big one” — a very large halibut

Dory Derby double-ender races, 1959