They've logged their last all-nighter and taken their final final, packed up their apartments and turned in their keys. Follow two seniors as they record their thoughts throughout their final year.

INSIDE LINFIELD MAGAZINE

By now you've noticed we have a new look. While the packaging may be a little different, you'll find that not much has really changed. We're still bringing you stories about Linfield, such as six students who received prestigious scholarships for study and research. You'll meet two seniors who share their thoughts on graduating and another student who was recognized for her poetry. We also give you an inside glimpse at Oregon's wine industry as we follow two students during an eight-month internship. We salute the outstanding seasons of softball and baseball teams, and we say farewell to two Linfield legends who personify the Linfield story – close personal relationships with students that help guide them in finding their calling. That's a hallmark of the Linfield story and an example of the power of a small college.
