The Wortman family has impacted the McMinnville community economically, politically and socially throughout the years…

Samantha Johnson, Daniel Hellinger and Jordan Mixsell
Linfield College 2012
Wortman Family Background

ROUTE OVER WHICH JACOB WORTMAN DROVE HIS OX TEAM TO OREGON IN 1852

Photo Credits: History of the Wortman Family in Oregon

“Buy Local, Build Local, Bank Local.”

Top: Jacob Wortman (1827-1904)
Bottom: Eliza Wortman (1830-1914)
Wortman Family Facts

- The Wortman family established the First National Bank of McMinnville, 1883.
- Jacob was elected mayor on March 1, 1887, and was reelected in 1901. In office he authorized the use of alcohol, cigars and cigarettes in McMinnville.
- In 1902 they purchased the first vehicle "The Locomobile" on the West Coast.
- The Locomobile was the first vehicle to drive along the Oregon Coast.
- First family to own a motorcycle, car and airplane in McMinnville.
- First family to sign the charter of society.
- Their Locomobile was the first vehicle to deliver mail.

Below: Main Street in McMinnville
Below: New Carnegie Library in McMinnville
Below: Wortman Family Gathering
Photo Credit: Tami Spears Collection
The Wortman Family Impact

“Seldom is the life of any man so thoroughly woven into entire fabric of a community over such an extended period of time as has been that of Frank Wortman. His death last Friday morning marked the end of an era of two brothers...”

My Little Sermon.

As we travel down Life’s pathway, there are four facts very essential to a worthy conclusion -- hard work, sacrifice, honesty and kindness to those about us.

We are truly thankful for this wonderful life that is given us and we realize that when our time on this earth is ended, it is not what we have that commands respect, but what we have done. This brings back fond memories to those who appreciate greatly, any kindness that has been bestowed upon any and all of us down through the years.

Frank Wortman.

Resources Consulted
Linfield College Library
McMinnville Parks and Recreation
The News-Register
Wortman Descendant-Tami Spears
Yamhill County Historical Society
First National Bank of McMinnville

Today Key Bank occupies 3rd and Davis, where the First National Bank of McMinnville once stood, in 1883. The bank was taken over by Key Bank in 1986 and no longer wanted any of the Wortman family linked to it. Frank Wortman was the last Wortman to work at the bank.

Above: First National Bank of McMinnville
Photo Credit: Tami Spears Collection

Above: Key Bank, 2012
Photo Credit: Jordan Mixsell
Ralph Wortman, banker and author of "A Horseless Carriage Comes To Town" and accepts the first copy of the book from Phil Bladine, a newspaperman who edited the book on June 26, 1966.

Ralph and Frank Wortman thought the city of McMinnville could use a new park so they purchased and donated land to the city. The park was known for its large child play areas. The park became a place for community activities and Wortman family outings.
Transportation in McMinnville

• Jake and Eliza purchased the first horseless carriage in the county for their grandchildren.
• It was the first car to cross the coast range mountains to the ocean and get back under its own power.
• It was the cause of the first legislation enacted regulating the use of automobiles in Oregon after it ran over and killed a dog belonging to a city councilman in 1903.

Below: July 4, 1904 - Frank Wortman is in the driver’s seat. Below: Governor Dewey of New York and Ralph Wortman

Photo Credit: History of the Wortman Family in Oregon
Today in McMinnville people can still find lasting impressions that the Wortman family has left in the community. To begin with, there is Wortman Park, which spans around 20 acres. The Wortman’s car can still be found, located at Key Bank, which was once known as the First National Bank in McMinnville, established by Jacob Wortman. Lastly, there are still Wortman relatives living in the area.

Above: Wortman family traveling on the Oregon Coast

Photo Credit: Tami Spears Collection

Dear Friends at First National Bank:

This is not a letter of sympathy because a member of your 'banking' family has been called away by his Creator, after a long and fruitful life. Rather, it is a letter of congratulations.

My memories are brought back to some of the days spent at the First National Bank. I remember that Ralph, on numerous occasions, repeated the 105th Psalm – for the benefit of June, Issora and myself. He seemed to delight in Verses 15 and 16: "As for me, he days are like grass, as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more." In Ralph's case, the words do not apply. He was granted many more years than the three score and ten; and he will be long remembered.

We Selemites think of Salem as being the "Marion Hotel and Ladd and Rush Bank." What of McMinnville? McMinnville is the "Wortman Bank."

You younger generation at First National Bank can leave no better gift to posterity than to match the gift of services given by Ralph, Frank and Fred and their dad and grandfather.

My best wishes are with you.

Sincerely,

Amy Seidler

Above: A note of condolence after the passing of Ralph Wortman

Document Credit: Yamhill County Historical Society