THE REVIEW

SPECIAL REGISTRATION DAY NUMBER

McMinnville College, Wednesday, Sept. 18, 1912.

F. Gorgon Pettit, Editor-in-Chief
Robert V. Russell, Business Manager

Hello

Well, here we are! And all the old students are most certainly glad to get back to renew their friendships. For they have found that the friendships formed during their college years are to be regarded as the best and most lasting. To talk over the work and plan of summer; to tell of the many advantages; to pledge more enduring friendships; to anticipate the pleasure of our college year; these are for the "old ones" to enjoy.

We extend a most hearty and cordial welcome to the new students. We especially welcome the large class of verdant Freshmen. The "Preps," since we must endure them, are, of course, welcome. Altho we may be accused of being impertinent, still we cannot resist handing the following bit of advice to the "marvelously developed and precocious" high school graduates who are in our midst. Do not allow your development to become abnormal. Especially endeavor to keep your "top-piece" in proportion to the rest of your anatomy.

You will find us most democratic. Enter into all our activities and be assured of a sincere welcome.

Concerning "The Review"

This Extra Edition of The Review is "on" the management "You're welcome." In apportioning your expenses remember The Review. Thursday, Oct. 3, is "Review Day" in McMinnville College. A great, big, double-barreled surprise is coming on that day. Keep your eyes and ears open for the "big stunt." The most radical improvement ever attempted in the history of the student publications of this college is to be inaugurated. Don't ask us what it is; we're too busy to answer your questions. Don't be disappointed if you are not asked for your subscription as soon as you think you should be. Just REMEMBER, Thursday, Oct. 3.

(Signed) F. GORDON PETTIT.

YOUR DUTY will be very clearly outlined every time you listen to one of those now famous "Mac Chapel Talks" (and they come often), but one duty must be attended to before you ever hear a chapel-talk—you MUST subscribe for "The Review."

Duty is not so bad after all when combined with the right kind of pleasure; we can assure you that the "duty" of subscribing for the college paper will be quite forgotten in the enjoyment of perusing its interesting columns.

The name "Review" will be synonymous with the word "Progress," it will mean better things for the students of "Old Mac;" it will bring your ideas into harmony and make music of discord.

You are expected to subscribe for The Review—and then write all that you have time to write for the betterment of its columns. It is your paper—and if it is not the best college paper on the Coast it will be your fault!

Here's to you—may you have the best of success in your school work, may you never fail to find pleasure combined with duty—and may you find The Review one of the most helpful mediums to your success.

(Signed,) ROBERT V. RUSSELL,
Business Manager.

Receptions

Every student is "expected to be present" at the address this evening in the church, and when we say the church we mean the First Baptist Church. Rev. Claude D. Kelly, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Jose, Calif., will deliver the opening address at 8:00 P. M. After the address the B. Y. P. U. will give its annual reception to new students. This is always a most enjoyable evening and you are sure of a good time.

On Saturday evening, Sept. 21, the Christian Associations will entertain separately; the Y. M. C. A. with a "stag" party in the Gym., and the Y. W. C. A. in one of the college buildings.

Greetings

Greetings are the order of the day in McMinnville College during these days of College opening. The undersigned, on behalf of the Associated Student Body, extends hearty greetings to all students of McMinnville, both old and new. We welcome the old students back into harness again as loyal supporters of our College and its many activities, even down to the studies. Put into practice the facts you gained last year and make them factors in your life this year.

To the new students we give hearty assurance of open doors into all the phases of our college life. Especially would we emphasize the open door of student supervision of all under-graduate activities. Our student body is a self-governing organization. Familiarize yourself with our Constitution in the Y. M. C. A. handbook which will be given you. Take active interest and part in all of the student body proceedings. You are one of us and we want you to feel it, and practice it.

With unbounded optimism (a necessary ingredient of true college spirit) we welcome you to the best year in the history of the institution and of your life.

(Signed) EVERETT S. BURKET,
President A. S. B.

Changes

We must admire the energy and preserverance of Prof. Van Osdel in remodeling the upper floor of the Main Building. It is certainly a needed and most helpful improvement and the old students can appreciate it.

The new arrangement for the boarding club is very fine for the club, but rather cramps the Y. M. C. A. study-room. In so small quarters it will be imperative that the fellows respect the student who wishes to study.

The small room leading off from the Y. M. C. A. study-room is occupied by the College Book-Store. With this arrangement the noise occasioned in selling the stock will not disturb the students as formerly. Mr. O. J. Marsh is in charge of the book-store.

Personals

Annabel Wood has been in the city all summer working in The Pacific Baptist office.

What will we do without Lola? Everybody is getting married. "Say, let's get married."

J. Allan Jeffery, alias "Fat," has been working for our Uncle Sam. He is also carrying on some work at home.

The Inimitable Johnny Mason is here again with the large grin.

Maurice Pettit, traveler, is to be steward of the College Club for this year.

Charlie Scott, sage, bum wit and phoolosopher, is back, rooming at Websters in the old Davis house.

The Bramberg girls will not be back. This will be a big loss for they were always ready to help in everything.

Burket, our A. S. B. President, came in last Friday. This town "do" seem to hold some great attractions.

We're sorry to learn that Burchard "Ananias" Hylton will not be back. What will we do without "Fuzzy"?

Ray Culver is still at large but they do say Walter is going to High School. He is rejoicing that he has had all his history.

"Gynx" and "Crassus" McKee, "Dad" Pruett and Prof. "Van" invaded Carlton and won fame at tennis this summer.

We are glad to welcome our new professors. We will have their pedigrees and records in the first regular issue of The Review.

Catherine Skinner will not be back until January and "Allie" won't be here at all. We'll sure miss the "Smile-easy-twins."

Miss Herrmiston has had the pleasure of spending the last week in McMinnville. She got her dates mixed and arrived a week early.

We are sorry to hear that Douglas is not to be here this year. We lose our Captain of basketball in "Dug", and a reliable pitcher. But he says he's coming next year.

After being absent the greater part of last year Miss Alta Davis is again with us. We missed you. Alta. Glad you're back.

Edna Lovegren, who declared so emphatically that she would not be back, is here with the whole family, almost. She's got the idea.

Sidney Nicoll, a former student and official jester, has been very sick this summer, but we are glad to hear that he is much better.

Hello! Vera. How do you like a real climate compared with Baker City? Miss Vera Stannard is from the wilds of Eastern Oregon.

Miss Edna Scott has returned and brought a new girl. Edna will be assistant in Physics and Luther Taylor is to be Chemistry assistant.

"Dad" Smith is still on the job. Howdy Pop. Speaking of being on the job, consider "Brownie" Miller, assistant to the President.

Paul "Caruso" Blackstone has succeeded in escaping the marriage bug and is to return soon. Paul is the basketball manager for the coming year.

"Bert" Miller, president-elect of the Intercollegiate Basketball League will not be here. He is Superintendent of the Sunday School at Newburg.

eFfiGy Pettit roamed in a week ago, trying to make trouble. He found Prof. "Crassus" thinking up all manner of evil stunts to pull off on the High School children.

From the two extremities of the West come Miss Burlingame and Miss Elsie Morgan—Miss Burlingame from Southern California and Miss Morgan from Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. R. S. McClure is the man you fellows who wish employment should see. He is chairman of the Y. M. C. A. Employment Committee and will always be ready and anxious to help you in any way possible. There seems to be plenty of work now for all, as many people are asking for students to help them.

New students should remember to patronize the Y. M. C. A. bookstore for their books, stationary, and other student requirements. You will not only receive as good values there as elsewhere, but will add your help to a good cause.

THE NEWCOMER

Oh, never mind if your clothes aren't so fine
As the rest of the boys—you can have some of mine
If you want them to wear—I'll just lend some,
you see,
And any time you can return them to me.
I'll be your friend if you want me for one,
So never mind what the boys may have done?
They're pretty good boys, and they joked you,
it's true,
But they never have thought how it sounded to you,
So I wouldn't care.

Oh, never mind when they laugh at your hair!
Boys laugh so easy, and don't seem to care,
Till somebody thinks how it feels when you're new
To have other old boys all laughing at you.
My hair was red once, almost, and you see,
When I first came here they made fun of me;
But now they don't care any more, and they call
Me "Reddy," but it's only a nickname, that's all,
So I wouldn't care.

Oh, never mind if you didn't know what
To answer the teacher right there on the spot!
I was so scared on the first day I came
I hardly was able to tell her my name;
And all the boys laughed when I tried and I tried
To answer, and couldn't, and sat down and cried.
But they came at recess, and they said not to mind,
Because they'd not meant to be really unkind,
So I wouldn't care.

Oh, never mind if it seems kind of blue,
I was new once, and I felt just like you;
All the boys do on the very first day,
But they don't keep it up, for it soon wears away!
One of these days you will think with a smile
Just how bad you have felt—you don't after a while.

I have an apple if you want a bite;
Why, everything's going to come out all right,
So I wouldn't care.
