ELIZABETH STEWART WINS CLASS OF '21 VALEDICTORY HONOR

NOFTSINGER TO BE SALUTATORIAN, WHITMAN ELECTED CLASS ORATOR

Honor Students Have Been Very Active In College and Student Affairs

Last Friday morning, during the chapel hour, President Riley announced to the students that Miss Elizabeth Stewart had won the valedictory honors for the class of '21, Erston Noftsinger, running a close second, had been elected by the faculty as salutatorian, and that Avarad Whitman had been chosen by the class as class orator.

Miss Stewart is one of the most popular girls on the campus, and during her college course has been very active in college activities and student affairs. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Phi. Miss Stewart entered with the class of '21 and in the course of her college career has held many student offices, giving much of her time to the development of a bigger and better McMinnville. In her sophomore year she was a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet serving as chairman of the Music committee, social chairman of the Conquest Class, president of her fraternity, and a member of the reporting staff of The

SENIORS DELIBERATE FINAL CLASS PLANS

Thursday afternoon, at four o'clock, the members of the Senior class were seen joyously hurrying toward the residence of Emmeline Schlauch. Pleasure and duty summoned them thither for a good rousing class meeting.

The out-of-doors with its wealth of warm sunshine was so enticing that an attempt was made to conduct a business meeting without, but in the spring time Senior minds incline toward frivolity so regretfully they turned their backs on old Sol and continued the meeting within doors.

A great deal of important, but nevertheless interesting, business was dispatched with due thought and deliberation. Such matters as choice of invitations and decisions as to caps and gowns brought anew to them the realization that the close of the four-year's course was indeed peering.

The most thrilling moment of the meeting arrived when Professor Schlauch, in behalf of the faculty presented Miss Elizabeth Stewart and Mr. Erston Noftsinger each with a portentous looking envelope. After much urgent exhortation these were opened and their contents read aloud. Miss Stewart was declared valedictorian of the class and Mr. Noftsinger

RIVALRY MEET IN TOUGH BATTLE MAC DEFEATS LEAGUE CHAMPS

PACIFIC COLLEGE QUINTET LOSES LAST LEAGUE GAME IN HARDEST STRUGGLE OF SEASON BY 21-19 SCORE

The McMinnville college basketball team played their best game so far this season last Friday night when they defeated the league leaders by a two point margin. The contest opened with a flash of speed such as is seldom seen in any game. Both teams were nerved for the fray when the whistle blew and it was anybody's game until the timers sounded the final whistle.

The first half was marked by the scarcity of field goals, Mac securing two and P. C. three. Kratt converted four out of six free throws, while Wright for Pacific gathered five out of seven. Both teams were fighting hard for victory and the checking was unusually close on every move. The half ended with 11-8 score in favor of Pacific.

In the second half the McMinnville team staged a come-back that spelled

MINSTREL SHOW TO BE GIVEN AFTER GAME

Curtain Will Probably Rise at 9:15 O'clock. Excellent Talent to Appear. Tickets Now on Sale

The curtain for the Prep Minstrel Show, to be given in Music Hall, will not rise until after the game with Pacific University next Friday evening probably at 9:15 o'clock. The show is being held over so that those who attend the game will be able to go to the show afterwards. Tickets will be on sale today. In view of the high cost of stepping the club has returned to pre-war prices and the admission will be 25c; reserved seats 35c.

This is the first appearance of the Prep Dramatic Club and the public is promised a high class minstrel show—the best of its kind that the school has ever produced. The program includes the best of minstrel music and comedy and is expected to meet with the approval of the most critical.

"In the Land of Cotton" by the mixed chorus, is a melody of the old songs and tunes of the sunny south.

The "Coontown Thirteen Club" is a side-splitting upheaval. A darky farce in one act. The club is nothing more or less than a suicide club, and at each annual banquet, of which this is the first, one of its members must kill himself.

"A Meeting of the Hen-Foost club" discloses dark deeds of a dark night. The "Darktown Jazzomaniacs" will present a rich and varied line of melodies and jokes.

The intermissions will be filled by the "Tar-Baby Orchestra" which is composed of outside talent. The

DR. HALL LECTURES ON RACIAL THEORY

Noted Physician and Teacher Traces History of the Race—Discusses Development of Individual

On Monday, February 21, Dr. Winfield Scott Hall, formerly of Northwestern University of Chicago, and who has been engaged in teaching for nearly thirty years, delivered an interesting address at the Chapel hour, on the thesis that the individual repeats experiences and passes thru the same development that the race has. Dr. Hall traced the development of man from the time he was given a soul thru the different stages, up to the present time. The illustrations he gave were unique and amusing and the manner in which they were presented was rather clever. After tracing the experiences of the race he paralleled that by giving experiences of the individual to show that the latter's development corresponds to that of the race.

Dr. Hall seemed to find it difficult to express himself, hesitating continually in his speech, which considerably detracted from the thrill which he had to bring. The address in itself was merely an explanation of the recapitulation theory which most modern thinkers refuse to accept. They recognize somewhat of a parallelism as was shown by Dr. Hall but conclude that there is no warrant for such parallelism being more than a theory. Dr. Hall visited McMinnville about four years ago and this was the same address he delivered then. Besides the talk in Chapel he talked at the ten-thirty period to those of the men who could attend.

MAC MEETS P. U. HERE FRIDAY NIGHT IN FINAL SEASON GAME

MEN IN PRIME OF CONDITION AND READY FOR BATTLE—TEAM IS TRAVELING AT TOP SPEED

Yell and Song Rally to be Held During Week—Big Serpentine Scheduled

The McMinnville college basketball team play their last game of the season on the home floor next Friday evening when they meet the speedy Pacific U. quintet. This is the last game of the league, Albany and Pacific college having completed their schedules. Up until the finish of the Mac-P. C. game Friday evening, Pacific college was leading the league, having suffered only one defeat administered by Pacific U. at Forest Grove, February 18. Albany was a close second with two defeats, both of which were handed them by P. C. Pacific U. lost both games to Albany and one to P. C. at Newberg. However, they defeated P. C. by a 23-17 score on their own floor, and Mac defeated P. C. by a 21-19 score on the local floor. This promises a real battle between Mac and P. U. next Friday and those who see the game will not be disappointed.

Coach Gildea is back with the team and is giving them his best and results were shown in the recent game. Every man is playing up to form and

15TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED FEB. 22

In Music Hall beneath a beautiful bower of gay red, white and blue streamers, members of the Conquest Class enjoyed the celebration of the fifteenth birthday of that class. Gentlemen found their desired partners, and the evening started off in grand style with a Conquest Promenade led by the class president, Delia Ingram, accompanied by Mark Rich. Great sport then ensued when each person was tagged, so to speak, with the name of a song, the titles of which were to be discovered by others and hurriedly jotted down on paper.

Merry games followed, one of which proved to be quite an interesting contest. Eight people participated. Each contestant was given a bowl of crackers and a spoon, were then blindfolded, and were told to eat the crackers as fast as possible. Ray Geiss proved to be the speed demon, and carried off the honors. After several other games had been played a program was given. Mary and Myrtle Ballard played two violin selections, and Halsey Carstens rendered a piano solo. Dainty refreshments were served, and the party broke up promptly at 10:30. The good time and success of the party was due to the untiring efforts of our social chairman, Miss Susie Steele.

SEE THE SHOW

The Minstrel Show to arrive on the campus via the Prep Dramatic Club after the basketball game next Friday evening, should receive an enthusiastic welcome from the students, especially those who have been acquainted with the production of similar shows in the past.

Everything is in favor of a good production. Capable talent and coaching, plus the proved ability of the participants to put on creditable performances, promise something of a high standard. Owing to its being given in Music Hall the number of seats will be limited, and it is expected that the house will be crowded when the curtain parts on the opening act.

COURTESY

In view of the fact that an article appearing in a recent issue of The Review, set down a little advice for the men of the institution, it seems no more than right but that the girls should do their part in helping the boys out.

Girls! Do you speak to a boy when you pass him on the street, or do you wait until he is forced to speak to you?

Do you refuse a date on just grounds or on the grounds that you are just indifferent?

Do you refuse one date and then accept a second one for the same affair?

Do you refuse to accept a date because you have heard that the one who has asked you has asked some one else before you?

Do you try to make your company as agreeable as possible when you are out with a young man or do you act in a bored, matter-of-fact way?

When you are walking with a boy do you speak to others passing you, or do you fail to do so?

Do you act, in other words, in the most lady-like fashion? These are a few questions for the girls of the college to consider.

COMMUNICATION

To the Editor:

Many times the question has been asked among the students, when The Review was issued, "Is there any news in the paper?"

The paper has the appearance of past events instead of something new. The reader likes to know what is coming, and surely has no more curiosity than the average person. Indeed this is not curiosity, but the right thing due to the student and public. It is true that the paper bears up the name (Review) in the best of fashion, but to the college student more should be added.

Our appeal is, "Give us the news or events before they happen, as well as afterwards." This I'm sure the readers will appreciate, and the contributions will be of some value.

There are many chapel speakers who visit the college during the year, in fact, the plan is to have at least one outside speaker each week. Very few students know anything about the coming speakers or what to expect of their addresses unless we use the ancient method, verbal communication. Let us use the press that is what we have it for.

Our speaker of the past week, Dr. Winfield Scott Hall received this introduction into the college in the issue of February 8, "Dr. Winfield Scott Hall will speak here February 21, but owing to his busy life, will be able to spend only the forenoon of that day in McMinnville." The man of the caliber of Dr. Hall should receive particular mention before the event takes place, then the readers would know Who's Who. E. C. V.

STATE VOLUNTEER ORGANIZATION OUTCOME OF CONFERENCE

Delegates from the Student Volunteer Bands of eight colleges and universities of Oregon met at Salem last Saturday and organized a State Union of the Volunteer Bands such as already exists in most of the eastern states. Martha Bean and Charles Davis represented the local Band.

Officers elected for the following year were: Marie Corner, Willamette, president; Mark Rich, McMinnville, vice-president; Louise Davis, U. of O., secretary-treasurer; Herbert Stevenson, O. A. C., and Hal Donnelly, state student secretary of the Y. M. C. A. are the additional members of the executive committee.

Besides the business organization, a very valuable conference was held and many ideas exchanged concerning the promotion of missionary interest among the students of Oregon.

The local Band with twenty members is the second largest in the state. Willamette leads with twenty-three.

The delegates left Salem feeling grateful to the Willamette people for the royal entertainment given them, and feeling that the conference had been a very valuable and successful one.

GIRLS TAKE NOTICE

McMinnville college girls are allowed considerable liberty and freedom in their regulations when compared with the privileges of women in other institutions. The following was taken from a recent issue of the University of Washington Daily. "Regular campus rules in regard to girl's rooming houses will be in effect tomorrow night, by a decision of the women's executive council. This means the 10:15 rule will be in effect."

ELIZABETH STEWART WINS VALEDICTORY HONORS

Review. During her junior year Miss Stewart won the junior class scholarship, was president of the Inter-Fraternity Conference, and a reporter on The Review staff. As a senior she is Vice-President of the Associated Students, a member of the executive board, president of Kappa Alpha Phi, a member of the G. M. C. council, and president of the Senior Women's League.

Mr. Noftzinger has been very active in student affairs, giving much of his time to athletics. He has been manager of The Review, president of the Conquest Class, and is now assistant manager of "Oak Leaves." He is a member of Alpha Gamma Nu.

Mr. Whitman has at all times been a very enthusiastic supporter of student activities. He has devoted much of his time to Y. M. C. A. and other religious work. Last year he was manager of forensics and is this year president of the Associated Students. He is a member of Phi Epsilon.

The announcement of these students as commencement speakers was greeted by the hearty applause of the entire assembly which unanimously agree they merit the honors they have won.

Remember the game with Pacific University next Friday evening is the last game of the season.

On Saturday evening Iota Omega Mu journeyed in the Hickok and Larson limousine to the country home of Llewellyn Larson. The main business of the evening seemed to be a chicken feed and after this very important business was disposed of a social hour was enjoyed.

Miss Ida Miller was hostess to Zeta Chi Saturday evening. The fraternity enjoyed having with them Mae Hansard, '20, who is teaching in Yamhill this year.

Kappa Alpha Phi sorority had a pot-luck supper on Friday evening at the McKee residence. Mary Louise Andrews and Helen Ankcorn were the hostesses for the evening. After a short business meeting and a social hour following, the sorority adjourned to go to the basketball game.

On Saturday evening the apartments of Henry and Locke were the meeting place of Phi Epsilon. After "masticating the fabric" in a peppy meeting the same method was used with better results on some light refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil G. Goss, now living at 1410 16th street, Boulder, Colo., announce the arrival of a son on February 8.

On the morning of the twenty-second, Mildred Erickson of Yakima, Wash., was guest of honor at a breakfast given by a number of her girl friends. At a very early hour the party wended its way toward the river. The girls unanimously declared that bacon cooked over a campfire could not be excelled as a breakfast dish. After the appetites of all were satisfied, the happy breakfasters retraced their steps homeward.

Alpha Gamma Nu again assembled Friday night at the "chamber of horrors" to lead Edwin Kratt through the orgies of initiation. After the tortuous ordeals had been completed, a few hours of rest were thoroughly enjoyed before the work of the day. Early Saturday evening all met at Professor Van Osdel's where the ceremony was performed, after which a wonderful evening was spent at the Stewart home banqueting in honor of our new member.

The weekly meeting of the Nesikas was held at the Schlauch home on Saturday evening. Owing to the resignation of Ruth Riley and Alma Carstens as president and vice-president, a new election was held, which resulted in the election of Catherine Schlauch as president and Marion Banker as vice-president. Catherine Schlauch then resigned her position as recorder and Bertha Pentney was elected to fill her place. A very enjoyable and profitable time followed in which one of the present day problems was discussed. A solo by Maud Finley and a reading by Iona Johnson were enjoyed by all present. Delightful refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream and cake.

On Saturday last the Nesikas met at the Goude house. The afternoon was spent in sewing for one of its members, who has recently married.

Delta Psi Delta met at the home of Prof. Richards Saturday evening. Business occupied practically the entire evening.

HORSE HIDE PELLET MAKES ITS APPEARANCE ON CAMPUS

Spring is surely here. The bright sunny weather of the past week has lured the baseball enthusiasts from their lairs and the period of hibernation is past. Once again the fans gather on the front walks and watch the novices in their pre-season attempts. The regular call for baseball turnout will not be issued until the weather is a little more settled and until the close of the basketball season which winds up next Friday evening.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

The Y. W. C. A. meeting of February 16 was led by Emmeline Schlauch, whose topic was "I Want That." The leader showed very plainly that the tenth commandment was one to be remembered by all of us.

Minutes from the last two cabinet meetings were read, explained, and approved. We also heard a very interesting letter from Miss Scott, a new worker among the Japanese, who told in a very entertaining way the joys of learning a new language in a warm and strange country.

Feb. 23. The subject "The Meaning of Courtesy" was chosen by Edith Clark. The leader spoke of the different kinds of courtesy, not only in manners, but also in the larger things of life. The fact was also brought out that much of discourtesy comes from selfishness.

Dr. Boone: "You are suspended for a term of three months."
Hopple: "I'll be dead if I hang that long."

defeat for the Quakers. The score see-sawed back and forth, neither team having more than a three point advantage at any time. Pacific fought hard to retain her lead while Mac was gradually creeping nearer victory. The latter part of the half was the finest demonstration of real basketball that has been played on the local court for some time. Mac was leading by one point. With only one minute and ten seconds to go Wright scored a field goal for Pacific, putting them in the lead. In less than thirty seconds Hickok caged a two-pointer that recovered the lead for Mac. Just before the final signal P. C. fouled and the free throw was converted after the game had ended.

There were no stars on either team. Every man fought like a true sport for the honor of his team. The game was exceptionally clean in every respect and one that brought many a cheer from the excited crowd. The game ended with a 21-19 score favoring Mac.

Second Team Game

The McMinnville and Pacific second teams staged a curtain raiser that was well worth the price of admission alone. Pacific had previously defeated the local second string so they fought with every ounce of energy they possessed in order to break even. Just before the close of the half the Quaker boys took a short spurt securing two field goals. Mac tried hard to tie the score but were able to secure only one basket when the half ended 9-7 favoring P. C.

The second half was featured by much better passing and closer checking. Terrill for P. C. secured three field goals, while Hill caged two and Vester followed with another. Terrill was chiefly responsible for the victory, securing five baskets and converting six out of eight free throws. The game ended 18-14 in favor of P. C. Following are the line-ups of the four teams—the team is going at top speed. Capt "Bob" Meddaugh is back in the game after a three weeks lay off due to injuries. His wonderful guarding was in great part responsible for P. C.'s defeat. "Eddie" Kratt, L. Larson, and "Wamp" Hoberg are playing an irresistible defense game, as well as a brilliant offensive. Hickok, B. Larson and Proppe are showing increased speed and accuracy at forward, and will give a good account of themselves in the coming game. Milt Coe, at center, is playing an excellent floor game and gets the tip-off to his teammates so that system plays are easily realized.

Every man on the team is in the prime of condition. No serious injuries are handicapping the team's chances for victory over P. U., and Coach Gildea is expecting to show Pacific the fastest game she has experienced in decades.

A big yell and song rally will be held in the latter part of the week. A bigger and better serpentine than either of those put on recently will greet the townspeople and direct them to the field of battle. Every student will be there flying the cardinal and purple. The pavilion will be packed with loyal supporters who will get their money's worth of real basketball when Mac defeats P. U.

FROSH ENJOY EARLY SPRING HIKE TO BOOTH'S BEND

On Tuesday morning, February 22, about nine o'clock, all the Frosh who could get up that early met under the college oak to participate in a hike to Booth's Bend. They came by twos and threes like the animals into the ark, each member grasping tightly his little paper sack or parcel which contained provisions for the day's journey. Baseball season having arrived the entire crowd played "catch" on the way to the picnic grounds, slipping about on the muddy road in a true sportsman-like manner.

At noon a big bonfire was built and a great deal of excitement was aroused by the opening of the before mentioned little parcels and the serving of a lunch in community style. Coffee was also served and a jolly time of "filling up" and "heating up" ensued.

Certain "little barbarians" seemed to take great pleasure in playing with lizards, horses teeth, etc., but those who received the tortures bore them with a smile. An enforced migration started the crowd homeward at an early hour and they arrived in Mac about three o'clock. In spite of the cool day no one thought of looking on the dark side of things and the bunch voiced their desire to go again soon.
