COUNCIL TENNIS TOURNAMENT HELD ON LOCAL COURTS

ALBANY WINS MEN'S SINGLES AND DOUBLES; P. U. TAKES LADIES' SINGLES AND DOUBLES

Dorothy Smith and Weston Henry
Capture Mixed Doubles for Mac

Saturday, May 21, the McMinnville campus was all astir with the racquet wielders of the Independent College Council. Pacific college, Albany college, Pacific University, and McMinnville college entered teams in the tournament.

The preliminaries were well under way by 9:30 a. m., the first match being between Albany and Mac in the ladies' singles which proved a victory for McMinnville who later lost to P. U. in the finals. In the men's singles Mac qualified against Albany, after Albany had won an easy victory over P. C., Albany taking the finals. In the men's doubles Mac failed to qualify and the finals were won by Albany from P. C. The local mixed doubles team defeated P. C. while Albany defeated P. U., the finals being won by the local team. In the preliminary ladies' doubles Mac defeated P. C. and won over Albany, the event in the finals going to P. U.

All schools entered, seemed well satisfied with the outcome of the tournament, P. U. taking the ladies' singles and the ladies' doubles; Albany, men's singles and men's doubles; Mc-

FINAL SEASON GAME WITH P. U. FRIDAY

The McMinnville and Pacific University ball teams will cross bats on the local diamond next Friday afternoon at 3:30 in McMinnville's last game this season. This promises to be a real battle and will be one that everybody will want to see.

Pacific, according to reports, has only lost one game this season, and that was when Mac trimmed them April 8. They are coming this week end to get revenge. It's up to the Mac bunch to stop them in their mad rush for victory. Mac has defeated them twice in track this season and once in baseball, and next Friday is the time to make it twice in baseball.

Roscoe Larson was master of the situation at P. U. and held the opponents helpless. He is pitching better ball today than at any time this season, and will doubtless outguess them Friday. The entire team is putting in their best ticks this week in preparation for the final victory, and Mac is expecting to make it another defeat for P. U.

OPERETTA STAGED AT AMITY HIGH SCHOOL

Last Wednesday evening the Girls' Glee Club gave "The Feast of the Red Corn" in the high school of Amity, to a large and appreciative audience. The production was equally as good if not a little better than when given at home. There was not a hitch anywhere and although inconvenienced somewhat by the small stage played on, yet this only served to add to the entertainment of the evening.

At the close of the performance the McMinnville people were shown to the Domestic Science rooms where were sandwiches, coffee, cake, and good eats in plenty. Prof. Richards, while the crowd was gathered enjoying the eats, made a presentation speech and gave "Mother" Potter, in behalf of the Glee Club, a large box of candy. The operetta was given under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers association, and the evening was wholly successful.

Y. M. SECRETARY VISITS CAMPUS

Gale Seaman Spends Day Interviewing
Seabeck Prospectives and Assists in Cabinet Organization

Monday, May 16, Gale Seaman, Pacific Coast Student secretary for the Y. M. C. A. made an official visit to the campus in the interests of the Seabeck conference, and also for the purpose of getting the new cabinet acquainted with various phases of its work. Mr. Seaman gave a very interesting chapel talk on things he was sorry for and things he was glad for in his college life. He was sorry that he had not gone out for athletics; that he had not become better acquainted with his professors; that he had not transferred his membership to the church in his college town. He was glad that he had become a citizen of his college town; that he had been active in Christian work and had been closely connected with the Christian organizations on the campus, and that he had found his life companion during his college days.

During his visit Mr. Seaman interviewed several of the men, and as a result more are wearing the Seabeck pins. Each year some do not go who could have gone had they tried a little harder, and these men have robbed themselves of an opportunity and a privilege that may never come again. This year Mac is planning on a large delegation. The men who have thus far decided to go are: Mark Rich, William Osgood, Ruel Marsh, Carl Nissen, Warren Savage, Alfred Hillier, Paul Jackson, Avarid Whitman, Russell Elliott, Earl Druse, Alrick Erickson, Elmer Dierks, Jose Petran, and Prof. VanOsdel.

"OAK LEAVES" TO APPEAR ON JUNE 1

McMinnville's first annual book "Oak Leaves" will be ready for distribution Wednesday, June 1. Mr. Harold Bliss, the manager, and Mr. Jesse Manley, the editor, have spent many long days and sleepless nights to make this production the best possible. Adverse conditions have made it exceedingly difficult to put the publication across, but the job is nearing completion and will be ready for your inspection a week from tomorrow.

"Oak Leaves" will compare favorably with year books from other institutions. It will be a 124-page booklet, 104 pages of which will be devoted to student activities, containing cuts and write-ups of the various student organizations. It is not wholly a pictorial review of the year's work, but contains many interesting and descriptive accounts that will be of interest to everyone.

LOCAL NINE DROPS FAST GAME TO P. C.

After Two Bad Innings Both Teams
Play Great Ball. Larson and Pill Twirl Like Leaguers

The college baseball team traveled to Newberg last Friday and were defeated by the Pacific aggregation 5-2 in one of the fastest and snappiest games of the season. Through several errors and a couple of hits P. C. scored five tallies in the first two innings, but after that not a man crossed the rubber. Mac made their two runs in the third on four hits.

After the third inning both pitchers were invincible and both teams played like a bunch of leaguers. Pill for P. C. and R. Larson for Mac worked great in the box. Pill struck out 12 and walked two, while Larson fanned seven of the opposing batsmen and let them down without a donation passage. Both teams each secured seven hits, two of which were doubles.

In the eighth after P. C. had secured two successive hits, Mac pulled off the fastest double play executed by the team this year. Hill made a clean scoup of a hot liner, pegged to Nofty, who relayed it to Kratt in record time, retiring the side.

Several times during the last few innings the locals had men of third, but were unable to score. It was a great game, a good one to win, and a hard one to lose.

McMINNVILLE WINS THIRD TRIANGULAR DEBATE OF SEASON

MAC DEFEATS ALBANY 2-1 AND PACIFIC 3-0, WHILE ALBANY WINS OVER PACIFIC 2-1

Jackson, Davis, and Olmstead Close
Collegiate Career With Victory

McMinnville college won the triangular debate between Albany college, Pacific college and McMinnville, held Friday evening, May 20. McMinnville won a 3-0 decision at Newberg, and a 2-1 decision over Albany. Albany won a 2-1 decision over Pacific college at Albany.

The subject discussed was, resolved that: "All labor disputes (in essential industries) should be settled by compulsory arbitration." This is the first time that these three schools have met in a triangular contest, however, the contest on the whole was so satisfactory that it is hoped another may be scheduled for next year.

McMinnville won first place with seven points, Albany, second with four points, and Pacific third with one point.

Messrs Jackson, Davis and Olmstead are seniors and will not have another chance at collegiate debating. During

INTENSIVE STUDENT CAMPAIGN IS PLAN

Friday, May 20, Professor Schlauch led Chapel assisted by nine enthusiastic Mac college boosters. Prof. Schlauch and Prof. Richards, Student Secretaries, are planning a most intensive campaign for new students during the summer. They maintain that the most effective advertising that the college has is its student body, and that they are depending on the students to do their share in securing new students.

Miss Ola Davis, Miss Gretta Goude, Carl Nissen, and Oscar Gladish spoke on the subject, "What you may do to boost the college in your own community." Each one delivered a short snappy talk outlining his plan of attack.

The importance of boosting work in the B. Y. P. U. summer assemblies is far underrated by the majority of students, so this phase of the summer's activities was discussed by Stuart Goude, Worth Wright, Emerson Cox, and Paul Jackson, these men having been connected with the work of the various assemblies in the Northwest.

Miss Vivian Stewart discussed the necessity of co-operation in letter writing during the summer and keeping in touch with the prospective students as they are reported by the student secretaries.

WHY NOT SIGN UP?

The biggest out of doors event of the year comes off next Saturday. It is the Conquest picnic at Baker Creek falls. Every student and all the faculty of the institution are eligible to go and are more than welcome to join the happy crowd of picnickers that will leave town Saturday morning at 6:30 and expect to return about 8:00 or 9:00 o'clock that evening. Plans are laid for the biggest, longest, and liveliest line of loaded hay-rack wagons that ever set out for a trip to the falls. Are you going to be in the crowd when the procession starts out North B street, or are you going to remain at home and wish that you had signed up and joined the party?

The weather is going to be ideal for the committee have had the order in for a long time. There will be sufficient eats for a young army, so don't worry about going hungry. The two picnic meals will be served near the foot of the wonderful falls and on the banks of that turbulent little stream that has for so many years provided refreshing drinks for the tired and weary hikers and water for the coffee that invigorates everyone before the hike for the power plant is begun.

You are expected to bring blankets and cushions for your own comfort on the wagons, and for use at meal times as there are no tables on the grounds. Everyone will be sure to bring a kodak and plenty of films for there is a world of wonderment to be snapped. It is also wise to carry a small drinking cup if possible.

There are no millionaires in the institution to finance such an expedition so the burden is equally divided between those who make the trip. The tickets are $1.00 and you will be guaranteed many times your money's worth of real sport. It is imperative that you sign up immediately so that the committee can make arrangements to accommodate every one. Do it now, and get in on the big day.

A MEMORIAL DAY MESSAGE

As Memorial Day draws near we are reminded of those brave men whom we honor on that occasion and of the patriotism which prompted those heroic deeds. At such a time, the outstanding figure that is most prominent in our minds is that of our celebrated Abraham Lincoln. He set before the American nation an example and a standard of ideals which has never been equaled. He gave us a stirring message in the following words that will long stand as a true ideal, and one that ought to be the burning desire of every true citizen to uphold:

"Let every American, every lover of liberty, every well wisher to his posterity, swear by the blood of the revolution never to violate in the least particular the laws of the country, and never to tolerate their violation by others. As the patriots of '76 did to support the constitution and laws let every American pledge his life, his property and sacred honor. Let every man remember that to violate the law is to trample on the blood of his father, and to tear the charter of his own and his children's liberty.

"Let reverence for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in the schools, in seminaries, and in colleges; let it be written in primers, spelling books and almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in the legislative halls and enforced in the courts of justice.

"In short, let it become the political religion of the nation; and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay, of all sexes and tongues and colors and conditions, sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars."

The local American Legion, the G. A. R. and the National Guards are planning a real memorial celebration on that day. Let every student do his part to commemorate the events for which this day is celebrated.

A DESIRABLE CHANGE

The springtime is often so crowded with various activities and social events that many of them are neglected. The work of the faculty committee which arranged a calendar of events for the year has helped to remedy this condition somewhat but there is one change which could be made which would help still more.

Oratory and debate come so late in the spring that they come in conflict with spring athletics and social events. Why not get these things off the calendar earlier in the year? The debate tryouts could be held in November and the teams at work by the first of December. The intercollegiate debates could come in February and early in March. The oratorical tryouts could come in December and the state contest be held in February.

Mac should not be the only college to do this but the matter might be taken up with the neighboring colleges and the season for these events moved forward to less strenuous times. Student support of these events is never over enthusiastic but if they came during the rainy months when the out-of-doors was not so inviting they would be better attended.

A civilization that starves its poets, and feeds its prize fighters on the fat of the land, is of doubtful utility.

VOCAL STUDENTS PERFORM WELL IN JUNIOR RECITAL

On Monday night of May sixteenth in Music Hall the Junior Voice Recital of Miss Jessie Jeffery and Miss Esther Telcher was given, assisted by Miss Flora Maloney and Miss Marion Swift. The songs of Miss Jeffery and Miss Telcher were exceptionally well done and much appreciated by the audience which filled the hall. Miss Swift's violin obligatos added greatly to the charm of some of the numbers and the piano solo by Miss Flora Maloney was excellent.

The program for the evening was as follows:

STUDENTS TAKE TRIP UP COLUMBIA HIGHWAY

A party of Mac people enjoyed a grand trip up the Columbia highway last Saturday in Mr. Sanderman's auto. They left town early in the morning, visiting various points of interest on the highway and had a big picnic dinner near Bonneville, returning to Mac in the evening. Those who went on the trip were: Mildred Christenson, Thelma Greene, Susie Steele, Miss Marie Erickson, Harold Bliss, Bob Meddaugh, Llewellyn Sanderman, and Mr. Sanderman, his father.

The Chicago Tribune has been conducting a courtesy contest in which the winner received a prize of $50. Dave Lindgren, a Northwestern fraternity man, was one of the recent winners in this contest. A reporter for the Tribune visited Evanston on a day's search for a courteous person. Posing as a prospective freshman seeking information about registering, he visited several of the business houses and spoke to the people on the street. In the process of his search he visited a fraternity house on the Evanston campus. He was met by Dave Lindgren, a senior in the Northwestern school of commerce, who made the prospective pseudo freshman so at home and took so much interest in helping him register that The Tribune awarded him a prize of $50.

Be What Mother Thinks You Are

While walking down a crowded street the other day

I heard a little urchin to a comrade turn and say:

"Say, Jimmie, don't yer know I'd be happy as a clam

If I only was de feller dat me mudder t'inks I am."

"She t'inks I am a wonder, and knows her little lad

Would never mix wit' nothin' dat was ugly, mean and bad.

I often sit and t'ink how nice 'twould be, gee whiz!

If a feller was de feller dat his mudder t'inks he is."

So, folks, be yours a life of toil and undiluted joy,

You still can learn a lesson from the small unlettered boy;

Don't try to be an earthly saint, with eyes fixed on a star—

Just try to be the fellow that your mother thinks you are.—Index.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The Y. W. C. A. meeting of May 17, was led by Vivian Stewart on the topic "A Yard of Cents." The object of the meeting was to obtain funds to help send the under-graduate representative of the association to the Seabeck Conference.

Gladys Peterson read the scripture lesson. Edith Clark gave a very comprehensive discussion of the money saving question. This led some of those present to wonder whether their management of private finances this year had shown a yard of sense.

The girls have planned to earn a dollar a piece for this fund and send it during the first week of August to Miss Stewart who has charge of the finances. A meeting will be held early next fall which will be devoted to telling how the dollars were earned.

Have you signed the list of those that are going to help?

LODA DAVIS TO APPEAR IN JUNIOR RECITAL MAY 25

On Wednesday evening, May 25, Miss Loda Davis will give a Junior Recital in Music Hall. She will be assisted by the Misses Mary and Myrtle Ballard, violinists. Those who have heard Miss Davis play know her ability and an enjoyable as well as profitable evening is assured.

The public is cordially invited.

LAMBDA LAMBDA SIGMA HONOR PROF. AND MRS. VANOSDEL

On Saturday afternoon the Lambda Lambda Sigma sorority met at the Jones home with their gentlemen friends. Soon several left the house armed with paper bags, leaving a trail behind them, which at times proved very difficult to follow.

After an hour of wandering over the country, the crowd finally traced the leaders to the grove near the race-tracks. This was a beautiful spot for a picnic, cool and shady, with a ripply stream flowing near by. While some were preparing the eats, the others engaged in a game of in-door baseball and some real stars were found.

The first call came for refreshments and all made a ready response gathering around the festive table, which was artistically arranged in the form of a Lambda. It is enough to say of the eats that they satisfied the most critical and all gathered around the fire afterwards perfectly satisfied and happy.

After the circle was formed around the fire, the Lambda quartet sang two beautiful selections. Two trained seals were the main attraction of the evening and their answers to the questions asked proved to be very apt and humorous. Zella Whitman and Dorothy Campbell spoke words of appreciation for the friends of the sorority, especially Professor and Mrs. Van Osdel.

Soon all left the fire and other games were played until the hour for the homeward journey was at hand. With much singing and joking the happy crowd wended their way back to town. All attending the picnic showed their love and respect for Professor and Mrs. VanOsdel as it was in their honor that it was held. It is hard to give up friends like these; but the best wishes of all are extended to them wherever they may go.

MISSES DELIA INGRAM AND ZELDA PEARD GIVE SHOWER IN HONOR OF KAPPA SISTERS

The home of Mrs. Ward Sitton was the scene of a shower given on Saturday evening, May twenty-first, in honor of Beth Stewart and Pebble Brixey. Members of the Kappa Alpha Phi sorority and their patronesses were guests. The hostesses of the evening, Miss Delia Ingram and Miss Zelda Peard, started the novel entertainment of the evening, by presenting each girl present with a stick of gum. This she was to chew and then mold in the image of the fiance's of the two guests of honor. Some clever works of art were produced, Miss Gretta Goude and Beth Stewart carrying off the prizes. Further entertainment included unique proposals supposed to have been performed by the two girls, advice for them to impart to their future husbands, a farewell song to them, and a debate on "Resolved, that college girls should not marry" the affirmative being taken by Beth Stewart and Pebble Brixey.

Dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served toward the close of the evening after the girls had displayed their many beautiful gifts. As a fitting close the sorority song was sung out on the Sitton lawn, where Japanese lanterns were suspended from the trees.

HIGH GIRLS ENTERTAINED

The college Y. W. entertained the Y. W. C. A. girls of the high school at a picnic supper Thursday evening. Although the weather man favored the happy picnickers with his customary showers of blessings this did not dampen the spirits of the crowd. The main features of the excitement was a lively game of baseball and a take-off on "The Feast of the Red Corn" staged by a number of the girls' glee club.

The call to supper was answered by a lusty shout and soon bacon sizzled and fried over the camp fire. This event is always looked forward to with eager anticipation by the college girls, for it is the only time during the year when the girls have an opportunity to meet with the high girls.

Appreciation is due Miss Myrtle Ballard, Y. W. social chairman, and her committee for the excellent program and supper so much enjoyed by all the girls.

SENIORS ENJOY DINNER AT THE CAMPBELL HOME

On Monday evening the class of '21 enjoyed a splendid dinner at the home of Mrs. George Campbell. The ladies of the class proved that so far as cooking is concerned they are ready to graduate with honors, and the men of the class suddenly awoke to the fact that the opportunities of this college life are too rapidly slipping by. The delightful atmosphere of the Campbell home was a fine scene for this jolly get-together, one of the few possible before this brilliant class dispenses on its errand of enlightening the world.

their four years they have been very active in forensics, all representing the college in debate for the past two years.

Albany at McMinnville

The Albany college affirmative team consisting of Harold Irvine and Harold Hoeflich met the Mac negative team in the local chapel in a fiery discussion. Without any preliminaries, Prof. Gardiner, chairman of the evening, introduced Mr. Irvine as the first speaker on the affirmative, who set forth the line of argument, contending that present industrial conditions demand a change, and that compulsory arbitration will benefit the public, the employer, and the employee. Mr. Irvine attempted to prove that compulsory arbitration has worked where it has been tried. His colleague, Mr. Hoeflich, argued that the proposed system is practicable because it would furnish a basis for justice between capital and labor and would deal with effects and not causes. Mr. Hoeflich's slow, steady, and convincing style was very pleasing to the audience.

Mr. Charles Davis opened the discussion for the negative, and in a clear-cut deliberate manner, quoted statistics and authorities, proving that compulsory arbitration has failed where tried, and that it is absolutely wrong in principle. Sylvester Cross, in a keen logical manner, cleverly refuted the arguments of the affirmative, presenting proof that compulsory arbitration would be unpractical and would fail to bring justice to either capital or labor.

Mr. Davis gave the rebuttal for the negative and Mr. Irvine for the affirmative. All four speakers are to be commended for the way in which they presented their material and for their delivery. The judges gave McMinnville a 2-1 decision.

McMinnville at Newberg

Mac's affirmative team consisting of Paul Jackson and Duncan Olmstead journeyed to Newberg to meet the Pacific college negative team. The debate was scheduled to come off at eight o'clock. Shortly after the hour the contestants appeared on the scene of action. Mr. Jackson ably set forth the opening arguments of the affirmative. Miss Hester, the first speaker on the negative, owing to inexperience in debate, was unable to present her case as clearly as did Mr. Jackson.

Mr. Olmstead, the second affirmative speaker, very cleverly showed that some of the statements of his opponent were not entirely logical. The second negative speaker, Mr. Perisho, attempted to show fallacies in the affirmative argument, but was unable to convince the judges.

Miss Hester gave the rebuttal for the negative and Mr. Jackson for the affirmative. The judges rendered a unanimous decision for the affirmative.

This was Pacific's first debate in three years. The last time Mac met Pacific the decision was reversed. Pacific intends to get an earlier start next year and wipe out this recent defeat.

Minnville, mixed doubles, while P. C. failed to win in the only final match for which they qualified, the men's doubles.

The local racquet wielders accredited themselves well, entering four out of the five final matches, and the institution may well be proud of the showing made by her tennis representatives. McMinnville was represented in the ladies' singles by Dorothy Smith, ladies' doubles by Emmaline Schlauch and Josephine Turner, mixed doubles by Dorothy Smith and Weston Henry, men's doubles by Erston Noftsinger and Jesse Manley, men's singles by Lloyd Fraker.

Summary:

GENERAL RECITAL GIVEN BY CONSERVATORY STUDENTS

The students of the Conservatory who participated in the general recital Tuesday evening, May 17, are to be commended for the excellent program rendered. Each number in itself was evidence of the high grade of work being done in the Conservatory department.

Quite a large and appreciative audience heard the program.

Athletic Loss at Harvard

Even Harvard, with its tremendous attendance at Harvard-Yale and Harvard-Center football games, lost money on athletics during the past year. The official report shows a loss of over $6,000 in major and minor sports, the total expenditures being $174,578 and receipts $168,234. Football and baseball were the only sports which were more than self-supporting.
