
Summer 2012

Moving On

Linfield Magazine Staff

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/linfield_magazine

Recommended Citation

Linfield Magazine Staff (2012) "Moving On," Linfield Magazine: Vol. 9 : No. 1 , Article 10.
Available at: https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/linfield_magazine/vol9/iss1/10

This article is brought to you for free via open access, courtesy of DigitalCommons@Linfield. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@linfield.edu.

Moving on

Diplomas in hand, the future looks bright for Linfield College graduates. Here's what some have planned.

Cesar Bueno
Sociology
Salem

I will work with Upward Bound at Western Oregon University, then pursue a master's program in education at WOU.

Garrick Rozairo
Economics and finance
Wattala, Sri Lanka

I will work for Human Investing as an intern in the analytic department.

Ian Rapport
Mass communication
Orange, Calif.

I will pursue a master's degree in strategic public relations at the University of Southern California.

Jonathan Chikamoto
Environmental studies – policy focus
Honolulu, Hawaii

I will join the Peace Corps.

Nicole Szanto
International business
Red Bluff, Calif.

Move to London to attend Hult International Business School for a master's in international business.

Emilee Lepp
Exercise science
Colville, Wash.

Move home for the summer to do a firefighting job, then work as a physical therapy aid while applying to physical therapy school at Eastern Washington University.

Gretchen Owens
Health education
Glendale

Pursue my singing career then get my master's degree.

John Frank
Biology
Hubbard

I will attend a molecular biology Ph.D. program at the University of Utah.

Katie Grainey
Computer science, economics and mathematics
Salem

Travel through Europe, then move to Washington, D.C., to be a systems engineer for the Department of Defense.

Rosie Schoeppner
Economics
North Plains

Work in agricultural economics field while working towards qualifying for the Olympics in Dressage.

