Worth 1,000 words

It's a bird! It's a plane! It's the Royal Air Force Red Arrows!

Skies buzzed with activity over the McMinnville Municipal Airport when it hosted for the first time the Oregon International Air Show Sept. 20-22. Linfield nursing students offered first-aid services to attendees during the three-day event, which Linfield co-sponsored. The experience provided hands-on opportunities for students, not to mention some of the best views of Oregon's largest aviation event.
