Worth 1,000 Words

The past year introduced a variety of phrases and experiences to our cultural conversation – family unit, social distancing, Zoom, the Rona and maskne, among others. We flattened the curve, learned the difference between quarantine and isolation and became experts in Carmencement. But even in this unique time, what didn't change was the fundamental Linfield experience. The 2020-21 academic year remained one of learning, community and, yes, fun on Linfield's campuses.
