

Violence in the Household
Rosario Rucoba

My mother and father are violence
Violence in the household
Household
A hold to the wrist
Wrist
The wrist before the palm that hits
Hits
Hits on like the ones I hear on the radio
Radio
The radio that dispatches the officers
Officers
The officers that come to break up the violence
Violence
The violence that runs through my family
Family
The family that is torn apart by screams
Screams
The screams my sister lets out with tears
Tears
Tears that run down my face
Face
The face I put on so my parents don't go to jail
Jail
The jail that can lead to deportation
Deportation
The deportation of family when all they ask for is help.