Biographical Note

Kevin and Carla Chambers have been involved in the wine industry and the Carlton community since finishing their respective degrees. Kevin served as the president of the Oregon Wine Board for three terms and, in 1990, they bought a small parcel of land which would become Resonance Vineyards. They also headed the Oregon Vineyard Supply and Results Partners, the former a retailer of agricultural equipment and the latter aimed at helping vineyards develop. In 2013, the Chambers sold Resonance Vineyard to Maison Louis Jadot of Burgundy — the second French label to invest in Oregon — and have since bought another vineyard in the Eola-Amity Hills.

Content Description
