Alumni Profile

Laura Davis
Linfield College

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/linfield_magazine

Recommended Citation
Available at: http://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/linfield_magazine/vol4/iss2/16

This article is brought to you for free via open access, courtesy of DigitalCommons@Linfield. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@linfield.edu.
An evening at Evergreen IMAX

Nearly 200 alumni and friends attended a special President’s Circle reception and dinner at the Evergreen Aviation and Space Museum IMAX 3D Theater in McMinnville. Among those attending were, clockwise from top right, Aaron Larsen ’08 and Kellanne Myrna Butler GSH ’63, Myrna Butler, an independent nurse consultant for Achieve-Mentors Inc. and Surgicount Medical, has displayed commitment to education during her nursing career. She has 43 years of progressive clinical and administration experience in nearly all phases of nursing. She has worked in several hospitals including Good Samaritan Hospital and Albany General Hospital as well as with several doctors and participated in an outreach program in Guatemala in May 2003.

Butler has been a mentor and teacher for countless nurses throughout her career. She taught principles of peri-operative nursing and developed curricula in that area. She has authored and presented numerous articles and papers and was a contributing author to Alexander’s Care of the Patient in Surgery. She has received many honors and awards for her work.

Alumni Profile

Singing her way across the country

Some might say Jazmin Gorsline ’99 has multiple personalities—and all of them love to sing. Gorsline has played Lili in Carousel, Laurey in Oklahoma, Julie in Carousel and Luisa in The Fantasticks. Now as Eliza Doolittle, her persona has expanded yet again.

Gorsline is the understudy for the lead role in My Fair Lady, the legendary musical currently presented by the National Theatre of Great Britain. She is also performing in the ensemble, and by June, when the 10-month U.S. tour is complete, she will have performed the show 328 times in 20 states.

“It is the most challenging and rewarding role I have ever prepared for, with the different dialects and transformation Eliza makes from the beginning to the end of the show,” she said. “Everyone thinks of this show as a story of Henry Higgins turning a flower girl into a lady, but in reality the true story is how she changes Henry Higgins’ life. It is written so well and there is so much you can do with the role.”

For Gorsline, who set her sights on a career in opera as a child, the experience is a dream come true. Linfield reinforced her vision, providing Gorsline with vocal training that has prepared her well for her career. She said Gwen Leonard, professor of music, was instrumental in laying her technical music foundation.

“The entire music department provided such a welcoming environment in which to learn and grow and explore,” she said. “Now, when I’m up there performing, the musical aspects and singing aren’t something I have to think about. I prepare, but then I rely on instinct and training.”

As a Linfield student, Gorsline appeared in Opera Workshop scenes from The Medium and Die Fledermaus, and earned a master’s from the Eastman School of Music in New York, auditioning for musical theatre productions between studies.

“I began to realize that it was possible to have a career in musical theatre and that was what would make me the happiest,” she said.

Gorsline has performed steadily in the past few years. Her big break came this year, when she was cast as the standby for the lead role of Lili in Carousel, Gorsline’s all-time favorite show, at The Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. My Fair Lady followed.

Got news?

- Have you changed jobs? Received a promotion? Returned to school? Received another degree? Started a business? Did you get married or have a child in the last 12 months? If you have news for your classmates and other Lindfield friends, visit us online.

- Jean A. Lien ’77 of Gresham, June 9.
- Timothy Baker ’90 of Portland, July 6.
- Nick Edward Reed ’99 of Salem, April 28.

Friends and family

- Jim Gilstrap, former assistant football coach, July 19.

GSH

- Carol (Bond) Lieble GSH ’52 of Portland, April 18.
- Wiloline “Billie” (White) Day GSH ’54 of Salem, June 29.

Class Notes

- Gosline’s all-time favorite show, at The Kennedy Center, D.C.
- Jazmin Gorsline ’99, right, performs in the ensemble to “I Could Have Danced All Night” during a production of Lerner & Loewe’s My Fair Lady. Also pictured, from left, are Dana Delosa and Lisa O’Hare.

Leonard is not surprised by Gorsline’s success. She said Gorsline performed graduate-level repertoire in her senior recital, a result of her self-motivation and creativity.

“When Jazmin sings, there’s something unique about her tone that makes people listen,” Leonard said. “In terms of her intellect and talent, she was an outstanding singer, always interested in making what she was doing better.”

Although the tour of My Fair Lady is just getting started, Gorsline welcomes the exhausting activity and the exhilaration ahead.

“I think my favorite part will be exploring the different cities and seeing how different audiences respond to the show each night,” she said. “So far, audiences have been wonderful, and I’m very excited to see what lies ahead.”

— Laura Davis