'Cat Tracks: End of Era: Carnahan Exits Field

Laura Davis
Linfield College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/linfield_magazine

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://digitalcommons.linfield.edu/linfield_magazine/vol4/iss1/15

This article is brought to you for free via open access, courtesy of DigitalCommons@Linfield. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@linfield.edu.
End of era: Carnahan exits field

Plenty of numbers surround Scott Carnahan ’73 as he retires as Linfield College head baseball coach this year. Among them: 1,174 games coached, 727 games won, more than 500 players mentored.

Under his leadership as athletic director, Linfield has been awardedCareer stats

Linfield record: 562-375-2
Career record: 727-445-2
Northwest Conference record: 359-127

NWC Coach of the Year:
11 times
NAIA District 2
Coach of the Year: 3 times

Under his leadership as athletic director, Carnahan has been awarded the McHoy-Lewis All-Sports Trophy three times, honoring the top overall athletics program in the NWC. He has overseen major upgrades to athletic facilities, including the 2004 $1.4 million renovation of the running track and football field.

During his tenure as baseball coach, Carnahan’s teams have won 11 Northwest Conference championships – five straight between 1992 and 1996 – and finished second on six other occasions. He has been named NWC Coach of the Year 11 times and NAIA District 2 Coach of the Year three times.

Over the years, Carnahan has passed along his own attention to detail and commitment to excellence, continually reminding players that “everything counts.”

“We go into each game with an underlying confidence, expecting to win,” he said. “We play without fear of making mistakes or losing. If we play our best on the field, we’ll put ourselves in a position to be successful. We won’t have any regrets.”

Players have been touched by his passion, including Jon Scarfe ’03, who applies many of the lessons he learned as an outfielder to his current position at Nike.

“I feel lucky to have had the opportunity to be a part of the rich tradition of Linfield athletics,” he said. “Carnahan taught me simple lessons like teamwork, leadership, time management, sportsmanship, patience, confidence and, most importantly, family.”

Standout moments on and off the diamond pale compared to the relationships Carnahan has made.

“The wins and losses all kind of run together,” he said. “But the connections I’ve had with my players are the most memorable.”

Scott Brosius ’02, who will succeed Carnahan as head coach, attributes much of his own success to Carnahan. Brosius won three World Series titles with the New York Yankees in 1998, 1999 and 2000 and was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1998 World Series.

“Carney’s had a huge impact on my development as a player, a person and now a coach,” Brosius said. “He’s built a program that has carried on what Linfield athletics is all about – the pursuit of excellence, both on and off the field. He’s a tough act to follow.”

– Laura Davis

Scholarship fund builds a legacy

Chelsea Machida ’11 knows a thing or two about achievement. Machida, the daughter of Keith and Mary Machida, both ’86, holds Hawaiian state titles in both the high jump and 1-meter dive and plans to compete in track and field when she arrives at Linfield in the fall.

Now Machida can add one more achievement to her list. She and five other students with family ties to Linfield will receive scholarship assistance thanks to the Linfield Alumni Association.

The Alumni Association Scholarship Fund, administered by the Alumni Leadership Council, provides financial aid to the children, grandchildren or siblings of alumni. It is the only fund specifically targeted to support legacy students. The fund’s growth depends on annual giving by Linfield alumni and friends. The application deadline for 2008-09 awards is Feb. 1, 2008.

In addition to Machida, this year’s recipients selected by alumni include: Stephanie Anderson ’11, daughter of Bonnie (Doerfler) Anderson ’83; Travis Kinder ’11, son of Joseph and Moira (Haldane) Kinder ’84 and ’85; Phoebe Robinson ’11, daughter of Myron Robinson ’92; Jade Severson ’11, sister of Derek Severson ’91; Jeffrey Yoth ’10 of Salem, grandson of Irvin Yoth ’41.

For more information, visit

Linfield’s online community just got better

Take advantage of new online features including social networking opportunities, an improved career center with job postings, campus news, photo sharing and your own customized login page. Create and communicate with special groups – dorm buddies, teammates or just a great group of old friends.

Sign up now and get connected. New and returning users of the online community will be asked to log in initially with a student ID to activate new features. Contact the alumni office for your student ID number.

Costa Rica reunion

Relive your Costa Rican memories Alumni and students who have studied abroad in Costa Rica are invited to join Mayra Herra-Monge, director of the Linfield College Costa Rica program, for a reunion Sept. 18 in Portland. Share stories and photos from past trips, and reconnect with Herra-Monge while enjoying Costa Rican cuisine. For more information, contact Debbie Harmon ’90, director of alumni relations, at dharmon@linfield.edu or 503-883-2607.

For details on these and other Linfield events visit

Alumni fund builds a legacy

Paying for college is complicated. Whether it’s paying tuition, room and board, or spending time learning on the field, students have to make sacrifices. These sacrifices can be compounded by the financial hardship faced by students who are among the nation’s 10 million Silva families. The Silva family, a long-time supporters of Linfield athletics, established the Silva Family Scholarship Fund to address the financial need of student-athletes at Linfield. The fund is open to students who are Silva alumni, Silva descendants or Silva-holders.

The Silva Family Scholarship Fund is administered by the Linfield Alumni Association and the Linfield College Office of Athletics.

The fund’s growth depends on annual giving by Silva alumni and friends. The application deadline for 2008-09 awards is Feb. 1, 2008.

In addition to Machida, this year’s recipients selected by alumni include: Stephanie Anderson ’11, daughter of Bonnie (Doerfler) Anderson ’83; Travis Kinder ’11, son of Joseph and Moira (Haldane) Kinder ’84 and ’85; Phoebe Robinson ’11, daughter of Myron Robinson ’92; Jade Severson ’11, sister of Derek Severson ’91; Jeffrey Yoth ’10 of Salem, grandson of Irvin Yoth ’41.

For more information, visit

Linfield’s online community just got better

Take advantage of new online features including social networking opportunities, an improved career center with job postings, campus news, photo sharing and your own customized login page. Create and communicate with special groups – dorm buddies, teammates or just a great group of old friends.

Sign up now and get connected. New and returning users of the online community will be asked to log in initially with a student ID to activate new features. Contact the alumni office for your student ID number.

Costa Rica reunion

Relive your Costa Rican memories Alumni and students who have studied abroad in Costa Rica are invited to join Mayra Herra-Monge, director of the Linfield College Costa Rica program, for a reunion Sept. 18 in Portland. Share stories and photos from past trips, and reconnect with Herra-Monge while enjoying Costa Rican cuisine. For more information, contact Debbie Harmon ’90, director of alumni relations, at dharmon@linfield.edu or 503-883-2607.

For details on these and other Linfield events visit

www.linfield.edu/alumni