6 ENGAGED: LIFETIME LEADERSHIP BEGINS AT LINFIELD
   Today’s active students are tomorrow’s engaged citizens. Linfield College students are taking part in meaningful service learning experiences, on campus and out in the community, which will shape their lives as engaged citizens.

12 CONNECTING STEWARDSHIP WITH PLACE Students learn about environmental, social and personal stewardship by connecting with a specific place during a January Term course.

14 GOODBYE CLASSROOM, HELLO RETIREMENT

   Linfield this year. We take a look back at some of their memorable moments, favorite classes and plans for retirement.

16 BETWEEN TWO WORLDS
   Sonia Ticas is a passionate and animated teacher who is also pursuing groundbreaking research in El Salvador and translating Central American poetry.

INSIDE LINFIELD MAGAZINE
   If engaged students equal engaged citizens, Linfield students are poised to take their place as responsible citizens of the world. In this issue, we take a look at the various ways students are involved on campus, in the community and beyond. We share the experience of students in a January Term class who spent a month exploring the meaning of stewardship by connecting with a specific place. Also in this issue, we tell the story of a gifted and passionate teacher whose impact extends beyond the classroom, even as we say goodbye to four faculty who have taught and cared for thousands of Linfield students. We salute our graduates as they move into the next chapter of their lives. Throughout the summer, we will prepare for new students, who will begin their Linfield journey in August.
